Logiball Standard Plugs & Packers Warranty

Logiball standard plugs and packers are warranted against manufacturing defects for a period of 12 months from the date of sale. After inspection of an item, Logiball will have the option to either repair or replace any standard plug or packer found to have a factory defect. Any product suspected of being defective must be returned, freight pre-paid to our manufacturing facility for inspection. Freight collect shipments will be refused.

No liability shall exist in case of misuse, abuse, over/under inflation, misapplication, mishandling, neglect, improper installation, modification or other negligence, or for any other costs other than the replacement/repair cost of the item in question.

No liability and or liquidated damages are or shall be assumed for any damages, downtime or other arising from the use and/or non-use of the item.

This warranty shall apply to the original buyers / purchasers and is non-transferable or assignable.

Items, parts, motors, controls etc. not manufactured by Logiball Inc., are not subject to this warranty and fall under their specific manufacturer warranty if any.
